TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS

There are three ways to reach Raetihi Lodge, by road, water or air.

By Water Taxi

From Picton

You will need to book a water taxi from Picton to Waterfall/Onahau Bay or Mistletoe Bay (both bays are very close together), which will take about 20 minutes, and offers a scenic cruise across the Queen Charlotte Sound. At Waterfall or Mistletoe Bay, the Raetihi Lodge Guest Water Transfer Service will pick you up in a van and drive over to Te Mahia jetty, followed by a water transfer to Raetihi Lodge. Total travel time is approx. 40 minutes. You will need to book both legs of the journey, and our staff will be happy to assist with bookings upon request. Please note, all prices quoted for external operators are subject to change, as Raetihi Lodge does not operate these services.

Raetihi Lodge Guest Transfer charges:

Waterfall/Mistletoe Bay or Te Mahia Jetty to/from Raetihi Lodge - NZ$25 per adult each way.

For groups min. 4 – max. 7 people travelling together - $95 each way.

Children 5-14 years are $15, and under 5 years are free.

Torea or Portage Jetty to/from Raetihi Lodge - NZ$40 per adult each way.

For groups min. 4 – max. 7 people travelling together - $150 each way.

Children 5-14 years are $25, and under 5 years are free.

NOTE: If you arriving into Blenheim airport, we recommend you use a shuttle from the airport to Havelock or Picton (both 30 mins) and then use one of the Water Taxi Companies listed above. We are happy to assist with bookings.

By Road

Two hours scenic drive down The Kenepuru Road. From Linkwater (the main road turn off) to Raetihi Lodge is about 74 kilometres.

Car parking at Te Mahia and travel on by Raetihi Lodge Water Transfer to Raetihi Lodge saves 1.5 hours drive.

The road is spectacular and can be driven on in a regular car. Note though that it is winding and narrow in parts and un-sealed for much of the last 25 kilometres.

If driving a rental car, please ensure that you are covered for driving on unsealed roads.
